The natural blend of Aqua Di Lara and Twisted Silver are sure to create drama on the catwalk and on the sandy shores, something Twisted Silver designer Debra Mitchell is thrilled about. “The Aqua Di Lara line is filled with visual intrigue, but there is such strong simplicity in the designs much like Twisted Silver. This is a stunning line. The combination of swimwear and accessories doesn’t end on the runway, modern lifestyles invite the oversized ring, or the multi stacked bracelets to the poolside, the sea...and beyond.

Trend Watch Summer 2010- Blazing the Trail with Natural Metals:

Always known for its abundance of chain; Twisted Silver leads the pack as this Twisted season includes metal mixing, statement pieces, and fresh take on retro-contemporary. Ever changing natural brass, the element of choice for rebel Twisted Silver, sets the stage for the collection bringing old and new world together in these Ultra-Modern designs.

This cult favorite indie line, adored by a distinctive group of celebrities, Twisted Silver designs are a regular at GRAMMY events, frequently featured in many top style magazines, and network program events as well as a favorite of the Style Network show How Do I Look. Perfectly Imperfect, Twisted Silver takes on jewelry with fresh unconventional zeal, and has quickly become a social fav, with the blogosphere and Tweeple a buzzing on Twitter, e-zines and blogs, too.
